

International training course

“The German dual system of vocational training”, in Berlin

We kindly invite you to an international seminar in Berlin for teachers and educators from Poland, Portugal, Spain and France.

This seminar will be held in English with the possibility of having linguistic support provided by the international GEB-Team.

Recently, there has been an emphasis on the importance of practical elements in the vocational education.

What does the dual system in vocational training mean?

The dual system in vocational training in Germany is very successful. Unemployment among young people in Germany is low compared to most of EU Member States.

Why is the German dual system so successful?
